WEEK 13

Principal's Message:

It gives me great pleasure to share that TRINS has been recognised with the GIEN - Purple Inclusive School Excellence Award (South India, 2025-26). This award is part of an initiative undertaken by the Global Inclusive Education Network (GIEN) in partnership with the Tata Institute of Social Sciences (TISS) and supported by the United Nations Information Centre for India and Bhutan and UNESCO Delhi; and is awarded to educational institutions who have demonstrated excellence with respect to inclusive practices.

This award is a testament to the hard work and dedication of our SEN Team, and to the leadership of our SEN Coordinator, Ms. Sini Regi Thomas. I would also like to express my gratitude to the parent community for supporting us in our inclusive journey. Parental involvement in developing IEPs and workshops and their constant encouragement have played a key role in our success as a school. At TRINS, inclusion is an integral part of our identity and culture.

We believe that every child, regardless of ability or need, deserves equitable access to quality education and opportunities to thrive. We strongly believe in creating spaces where all children can study, play, and grow together with mutual respect and understanding. Inclusion is more than access, it is about belonging - and it permeates into every action and decision that we take as a school. This award reaffirms our belief that inclusion, when embedded in culture, can create transformative impact; and acknowledges an ongoing commitment, a shared belief, and a collective effort to ensure that every child, every voice, and every story is seen, heard, and valued.

A Journey of Discovery: Students' Insights from the Round Square International Conference

Advay Nair

"Before this trip, all I knew about a round square was its a global meetup, and I get to go abroad. I was right, it is a global meetup, but now I know that it has more depth than just a casual trip; it's learning through experience, it's getting out of your bubble to socialize, it's a mock drill before stepping out of your comfy school life - building connections that will show worth in future time."

"The Round Square International Conference in Dubai was an unforgettable journey that brought the IDEALS to life. Meeting students from around the world taught me the value of openness and culture. The most meaningful moment was Service Day, where I danced and interacted with differently abled children, an experience that taught me true kindness, joy, and connection. It reminded me that service is about empathy, not just giving. RSIC left me inspired to lead with compassion and carry these values into my everyday life."
