WEEK 16

Principal's Message:

We are officially on the road to Christmas with the cake mixing ceremony being celebrated last Saturday in the main campus. It was a fun-filled event and I would like to express my gratitude to all the parents who were able to take part in this ceremony. Your presence made the event brighter, joyous, and more meaningful.

Celebrations such as the cake mixing ceremony provide us with opportunities to meet and enjoy as a community. A strong, connected community is central to the educational philosophy of TRINS. It underlines a spirit of belonging and enhances and self-worth, thereby providing the right environment for children to flourish. Celebrating together is integral to building a sense of shared identity and responsibility and strengthens relationships. From the perspective of a school, a strong community means support, understanding, and continuity. It allows us to nurture a culture of empathy, inclusivity, and respect, values that define the character of TRINS as an institution.

As a school, we look forward to providing more opportunities for parents to be a part of school activities and celebrations. When we collaborate openly, we can better respond to students' needs, celebrate their successes, and face challenges with resilience. These lessons cannot be taught from a textbook; they are experienced through shared values, cooperation, and connection.

PYP Parent Orientation: Preparing for the Next Step
